

New Life United Methodist Church to Host 4th Annual BLUEGRASS FESTIVAL
Saturday April 17th 5-10 p.m.

For the fourth year, New Life United Methodist Church (25 W. Fifth Ave. in the Short North) will be hosting a Bluegrass Festival! All proceeds will go to assist with their ministry with currently homeless people and other neighbors who live in poverty.

The concert on Saturday April 17, 2010 will be held at the church. The evening's program will include dinner, a return performance by Wildwood and will feature SUMMERTOWN ROAD with Randy Thomas, Bo Isaac, Jack Hicks and Don Rigsby.

Dinner is served at 5 p.m. and the music starts at 6pm. A Silent Auction is also a part of the event. Bidding will begin at 5 p.m. and will close at 8:30 p.m.

Admission to the event is by donation of any amount of money at the door and additional donations of new socks and underwear for distribution in the church Clothing Room will also be accepted that evening. Dinner is $10 per adult and $5 per child under 12 (kids under 5 are free).

New Life United Methodist Church serves poor and homeless people in the Short North Area of Central Ohio with two free breakfasts every week (Sunday and Tuesday mornings), a free Clothing Room which is open three mornings a week (Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday) and free health care through the Health & Wellness Center on Sunday mornings. The ministry also includes free tutoring, Christian education and fun events for neighborhood children.

Worship is every Sunday at 10:30 a.m. "Come as you are, you'll be loved."
